

The College follows a full proof system of evaluation to keep the graduates highly competent and effective. Both internal and external assessments are harmoniously blended in the evaluation systems. The Internal assessment is done by the course teachers concerned and the external assessment is conducted by the University.

---